

Central Virginia Cursillo – Fourth Day Group Reunions

GROUP REUNIONS 2018: YOUR FOURTH DAY

Now that you've made your weekend and have made many new friends you can keep it going by joining a Fourth Day Group Reunion. Here are some ways to get into a Group:

- Check with your sponsor for help
- Contact a Team Member for help and guidance
- Refer to CVCC Group Reunion lists and maps for your area in Weekend handout materials
- OR: Go on-line: <http://www.centralvirginiacursillo.org>
- You will need to log into site; for instructions contact your sponsor
Or Cris Pond: CEPond@gmail.com

Start a Group with your friends from the Weekend; Contact a mentor from the list, and they will be able to help you as you form your own Fourth Day Group Reunions (refer to “Starting Your Own Group Reunion”)

Starting Your Own Group Reunion Group Mentors Program 2018

- Starting a Group Reunion is easy. Now that you have completed your Cursillo Weekend, you may want to form your own Group Reunion with the friends you have made from the Weekend.
- If you need help contact a “mentor”. A Mentor is someone from the Cursillo community that has had Group Reunion experience and can help you and your group members in the first weeks or months of your meetings. They can help guide you through the Cursillo Method and help your group get settled.
- If you would like more information on mentors that are available to help you and your group, contact a “mentor”:
 - Cris Pond (CEPond@gmail.com) – Richmond area - 804 822-0235
